

Te Hā Tangata

*'the breath
of the people'*

HUMAN LIBRARY ON HOMELESSNESS

Our homeless Taonga are the books, you are the reader.

Hear the voices of our Taonga, New Zealander's who have experienced homelessness, as they tell their own stories.

When & Where

Saturday 27 May 2017
11am - 1pm
Wellington City Library
65 Victoria Street,
Wellington 6011

Entry by koha

Te Hā Tangata is proudly brought to you by the Compassion Soup Kitchen, Te Whakamura Ai Te Ahi and Massey University. We are thankful for the generous funding from the New Zealand National Commission for UNESCO and Ngati Kahungunu Whānau Services.

To find out more about Te Hā Tangata or how you can support this project, contact Karen Holland, Kaiwhakahaere at the Compassion Soup Kitchen on (04) 385 9299 or email soup@compassion.org.nz.