

2018 Spirituality Events

Nau mai Haere mai

Spiritual programmes

We invite you to our place of pilgrimage, prayer, respite and retreat.

Spirituality and Retreat

“We are planting fruit trees.”

Kei te whakato rakau hua matou.

Updated: 06/08/2018

Opportunities for Prayer and reflection

2018 Schedule

7 September
5 October
2 November
7 December

Taizé Prayer

First Friday of the month in the Chapel – 7pm to 8pm

Taizé is prayer consisting of meditative singing – simple songs typically featuring a line or two from the Psalms. A kind of lectio divina in music, reading and spoken prayer along with periods of silence.

“We can each learn to live in the spirit of kindness, simplicity and reconciliation.” Brother Roger Schütz

Please note:

Mass or a liturgy of Holy Communion will be held in the Chapel at other times as advised.

Sunday Miha and weekday Liturgies

11am Sunday Miha (Maori Mass)

Weekdays: 12noon Angelus and 3pm prayer.

Nau mai, haere mai – All are welcome

Opportunities for Retreat and respite

2018 Schedule

Each Monday from 12 February to
17 December (inclusive)

Christian Meditation

Each Monday evening in the Chapel – from 7pm

The practice of meditation is an ancient form of contemplative prayer, deeply anchored in the teachings of the early Christian desert fathers and mothers of the 4th and 5th centuries.

*“We can meditate outside of any spiritual tradition, but it will always lead us back home where we belong; the heart.”
Fr Laurence Freeman*

2018 Schedule

13 September
11 October

Quiet Days with Suzanne Aubert

Second Thursday of the month – 10am to 2pm

Insights from Suzanne’s life can be a means of developing our own spiritual tools and wisdom. Suzanne knew very well that life can be difficult and exhausting. Her understanding of human nature led her to offer practical and gentle advice.

“When a crotchety old woman, in an awful temper, throws her cup or her pillow... give a good shaking to the pillow and attempt to catch the cup.” Suzanne Aubert – Meri Hohepa

Contacts

Sr Margaret Ann Mills dolc
Sr Sue Cosgrove dolc

By appointment

Retreat@compassion.org.nz
Phone: 04 383 7769

Spiritual Direction

More accurately called spiritual companionship, this ministry of walking alongside another, supports people in their deepening awareness of the presence and action of God in their lives. Spiritual direction differs from counselling or professional supervision in that it is focused on the lived, personal experience of prayer – the relationship between self and God.

*“A space to acknowledge and explore our deepest longings – to explore the paradoxes of life, to feel loved and to offer love.”
Sr Sue Cosgrove dolc*

2018 Schedule

21 – 28 Sept (6 days)
9 Nov– 11 Dec (30 days)

Ignatian Spirituality NZ

Contact: www.ignatianspirituality.nz

This residential series of silent individually guided retreats, in the dynamic of the Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius of Loyola, are open to all. Themes include A New Heart, Holy Mystery, A Discerning Heart as well as the “30-day Spiritual Exercises”.

*“I learned by experience that one train of thought left me sad, the other joyful. This was my first reasoning on spiritual matters.”
Ignatius of Loyola*

Places to visit at Our Lady's Home of Compassion

Opening Hours

Monday – Saturday
10am to 3pm

Sunday
12noon – to 3pm

For more details, visit:
www.compassion.org.nz

Looking ahead...

1 October

Anniversary of Suzanne Aubert's death in 1926. National commemoration day for this extraordinary woman.

3 November (11am – 2pm)

'A Caring' Space for Carers:
Exploring the burdens and blessings of caring for others.
Facilitator: Ronnie Parton

Suzanne Aubert's final resting place

Suzanne Aubert – Meri Hohepa

A slab of Waitaha stone with a simple carved inscription, marks the place where Suzanne Aubert is buried, beneath the Chapel floor at Our Lady's Home of Compassion, Island Bay. This specifically designed prayer space is open to the public each day and at other times by arrangement.

The journey from her native France to this, her final resting place in Aotearoa New Zealand, is an extraordinary story of faithful courage. The lights embedded in the vaulted ceiling above her, reference the southern cross constellation – a poignant symbol that she rests among her people, in this land.

All are welcome to visit and sit a while.

*"Rivers do not return to their source."
Suzanne Aubert – Meri Hohepa*

Chapel of Our Lady of Compassion

A place of prayer, pilgrimage, respite and retreat

Visitors and pilgrims visiting the Chapel are welcome to take time out for quiet prayer or to simply sit with their own thoughts. The iconic Stations of the Cross, designed by renown artist John Drawbridge, are a wonderful source of contemplative inspiration and visitors will be rewarded by the addition of the 15th Station, the stained glass Resurrection window, also by John Drawbridge.

Suzanne Aubert Heritage Centre

Spaces for permanent and temporary exhibitions

The inspiring story of the Venerable Suzanne Aubert, her early life, her journey to Aotearoa New Zealand, her scholarship and accomplishments in botany, chemistry and traditional Maori medicine as well as her love for the people of this land, is told in the Heritage Centre's permanent exhibition. New material about the on-going work of the Sisters of Compassion and their co-workers means there is always more to discover.

For more information and to register for events:

Email: Retreat@compassion.org.nz

Phone: 04 383 7769

Visit: www.compassion.org.nz

To be kept up to date with events throughout 2018, please contact us and ask to be added to the Spirituality Programme mailing list.