Meeting Spaces

Groups large or small can gather in modern meeting spaces and numerous breakout rooms. Meeting spaces include free WiFi, data projection and comfortable seating and tables.

The Lyon Room – Popular for theatre style seating for lectures and seminars. The natural north-west outlook provides indoor/outdoor flow and space for workshop participants to move around.

The Ryan Room – A multi-function meeting room adjacent to the Cloister Café and courtyard. Best suited to executive and board style meetings.

The Marcelle Room – A comfortable room for up to twenty people. It is suited to workshops and small meetings.

About Us

Founded by Suzanne Aubert in 1892, the Sisters of Compassion are active in supporting young and old in compassionate ways. The Soup Kitchen is a safe place where people in need can find community, enjoy meals and participate in meaningful activities such as gardening, learning computer skills, fishing and sewing. Further afield in Upper Hutt and Horowhenua, Compassion Housing supports elderly residents live with dignity and independence in affordable and quality homes. And, in Upper Hutt, the St Joseph's Home of Compassion provides hospital and dementia care over its 45 rooms.

As a registered charity with the New Zealand charities commission, when you book a meeting or accommodation with us you are supporting all the work of Compassion.
